Here's to the students of this great school
Who study and slave to learn life's rule.
To teachers who work with all their might
To see that students are taught just right.

Together they have a world of fun
Shaping memories of things well done.
Telling their story with film and prose
Informal and candid, for pictures they pose.

You're young only once so live life well
And leave a record you're proud to tell.
It may be amusing, but make it true
Others will follow the same path as you.

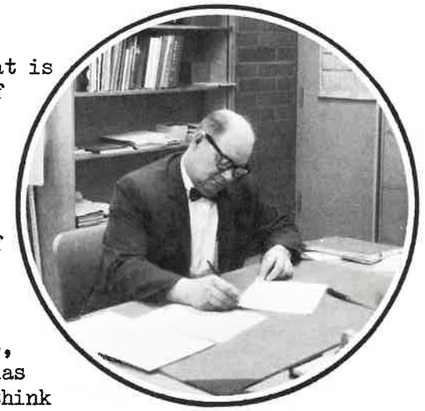
PRINCIPAL'S PRINCIPLES



Books, books, books, what is happening in the realm of books? We are told that our American youth are reading more books than ever before.

Did you ever stop to think about the number of books in our Joseph City School? Each room has a classroom selection that averages 300 books. Also, our high school library has about 2,176 books. Now think of each student in our school using on the average of five books each. Now consider our very important little P.T.A. library which circulates almost 800 books. Add these and you have approximately 6000 books in our school.

My message to you students is this: Never lose your respect for good books. Handle them with care. Books are your friends in life. Try to remember those books that have played an important part in your life. Reading good books will open many doors to adventure and learning for you.

Daniel M. Inman, Principal

DEDICATION

Because of her interest in the students of JCS, her willingness to help in plays, sponsoring, and the school paper, her talents used to improve our scholastic standing, and her dedication to teach us "good old Modern English," we, the annual staff, wish to dedicate this issue of the WILDCAT, to MRS. JUDITH FAMBROUGH.

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

I, Ima Jean Stoneman, have had some pretty wonderful years at good old JCS. But, as I have to leave it now, I would like to leave some of those wonderful, silly, happy times, to those I'm leaving behind.

First, to Maylene and David, I leave my ability to hold hands in Driver's Ed.

To Max, the tenth grade class will leave Peggy.

To Marilyn, I leave my P.E. locker in hopes that she can still open it.

To Boyce, I will the name "Shortier."

To Steven Hansen, I leave a year's supply of candy. To the Sophomores of next year, I leave the name "The Mighty Sophomores." To the Freshmen of next year, I leave the name "The Lowly Frosh." I hope you all have as much fun here as I did. "Good Luck!!"

I, Frederick Gary Morris, being of sound mind and bod, upon leaving this Mental Institution of learning, do hereby leave the following items to the following people.

To Steven Hansen, I leave my ability to be first string center (sinner.) To Bill, I leave my Sophomore books, hoping that he may pay for them. To Maylene, I leave my long list of locker combinations, because she is always trying to get into someone's locker.

To Reed, I leave any girl of his choice, or one that will have him, to sit on the back seat of the bus. To Lesley, I leave my seat in Driver's Ed. in hopes that she doesn't drive Mr. Lira Mad. To Alford and Maylene, I leave the other back seat of the bus and to all the teachers and janitors, I LEAVE!

I, Dora E., being born of sound mind and uncoordinated bod, do hearby leave this beloved school.

To some of the unfortunate people who have to stay behind, I leave some of my most prized possessions.

To Diann, I leave my good study habits and my ability to flunk English.

To Max, I leave my ability to never get caught chewing gum.

To Maylene, I leave my ability to get smashed by an avalanche of falling books from the locker above me.

To Patty E., I leave my ability to never do anything right.

To Marilyn, I leave Gary S. in hopes she won't be too hard on him, and to the rest of you--I LEAVE!!!!!!!!

I, D.G. (Colleen Miller), being of weak mind, weak brain, and weak bod (laugh, laugh), would like to leave some of my many treasures and abilities to the poor unfortunates who have to stay behind.

To Reed Shelley, I leave Joseph City (don't tear it apart), a good looking girl, and the back seat in the bus.

To David A., I leave Maylene and the other back seat in the bus. And since I won't be here next year, I leave Diann the job of watching them.

To Max, I leave his days filled with great expectations of another warning on his locker, his daily water fights, and the great hope that some day he may become janitor of these hallowed halls.

To Maylene, I leave my six page history worksheets, English sonnets----by Shakespeare, Petri dishes filled with agar, bacteria, broken slides, clabbered milk, and daily quizes--and David.

To Mr. Larsen, I leave Nelson, and to Nelson, Mr. Larsen. Have fun.

And to Patty E., I leave the job of always keeping Jr. Birdman a legend in his own time. I also leave to Patty all the fond assemblies, (by the pep club) bus trips (coming back from Snowflake,) glopped peppermint sticks, the post office, her barbecued potato chips, the ability to never have any clean pants, the job of being the biggest spas in the school, and Davey.

To Steven Hansen, I leave lucky locker #1.

To Catherine and Rhonda, I leave B-A-A-A-A-A-A-A-A-A-C-H.

And to anyone who feels left out I leave! (Don't cry too hard.) And these last words of advice: "Laugh it up!"

I, Glenn Jones LEAVE!!!!!!! (I hope!!!!!)

I, Daniel Ward Foree the First, upon leaving this dearly beloved institution, so care to will the following items to the following people.

To David Eskey, I leave my surfer hair-do in hopes that he can find some place around here to surf.

To Reed S., I leave a back seat in the bus, in hopes that he can find a good use for it.

To the boys' P.E. Class, I leave the shower room, in which a bacteria population explosion is taking place.

To Bill Duncan, I leave number thirteen and number double zero basketball jerseys.

To all the girls, I leave fond memories of myself, as they look at my picture.

And to the teachers . . . I LEAVE!!!!!!!

I, Stephen Bickford (Bick), upon leaving this old school, I would like to leave some of my most treasured possessions.

To Steven H. I leave my ability to foul as soon as I get in a game. To Max, I leave my broken test tubes and cover glasses. To Maylene, I leave D.A. and the back seat on the bus.

To Doug, I leave my ability to be where all the trouble is, etc. etc. To the Frosh, I leave the name MIGHTY SOPHOMORES.

I, Sharon Wimmer, now departing from this "dearly beloved" school, wish to bequeath some of my talents and treasured possessions to those who are staying behind.

First of all, to Rhonda, Patty, and Catherine, I leave my ability to forget my P.E. clothes for three weeks in a row about twice a year. To Max and David A., I leave what's left of my year's supply of bubblegum.

To Maylene, I leave our humpin' clarinet section, in hopes she can make it sound as lousy as it did when I was in it. To Diann, I leave my love for an argument on any subject, although she doesn't do so bad herself. I leave these memories in hopes they will be greatly appreciated and honored for as long as they last.

I, David Cummings, will my wig and good looks to Doug Miller.

I, Jayne Q. Randall, leave!!!!!!!!! (Well, somebody had to just leave--didn't they??)

I, Bob Boyse, am too selfish to leave anything. I need all my great talents for my future at H.H.S.

I, Peggy Miller, being of strong mind, brave soul, and talented bod (laugh that one up), while departing from this school, wish to leave the following things to the following people:

To Steven H., I leave one big unpaid debt and these words of advice: "Keep trying, one of these days you might get it back." To Virnell B., I leave one scratched up floor and the fun and bruises we got that way.

To Lesley, I leave my ability to always break something in biology. To David, I leave these words: "One of these days you're going to fall flat on your face, while trying to trip me." To Patty E., I leave all the Jr. Birdmen she might find. To Reed, I leave my ability to never hand in a history worksheet.

To Nelson Y., I leave the memories of being band librarian. Keep up the good work, you may make a President yet. To Maylene, I leave one ugly cheerleading suit. To Max, I leave my most prized possession of all. My ability to play fairy, and fall down, or get bit by a dog. To my two little brothers, I leave, in hopes it will satisfy them. To the rest of you, I leave these words: "YOU'RE A PLENTY GREAT SCHOOL."

I, Sandra (Sandi) Rogers, leave?? these hallowed halls of learning, better known as JCS, with much regret and emotional disturbance (sob, sob!) But, so that the peons who must remain and continue the battle, may have memories of better, happier times, I, being of timid soul, uncoordinated bod, and pooped out molecules, wish to deposit a few CHERISHED items upon them.

First, to George, I leave--so he can quit spying on me--and me on him. To Rhonda and Catherine, I leave my ability to endure the sub-zero weather in going to Seminary. Nyla, Lynn, and Lesley receive my patience in waiting days for mail. Next, to Patty, I leave the heritage of Jr. Birdman. Also an extra shoelace. My memories of being the only girl in library go to Terri, Phyllis, Lynnette, and Susan and Pat. I'm sure they can handle them. To Bush and Boogie, I will make a supreme sacrifice and leave them my pleasant?? memories of working on the paper.

Max and Reed receive my official permission to be zombies and buffaloes. Next, I doth will my "Protected with ZEREX" sticker to anyone who can remove it from my locker. To Nelson, I leave the band, hoping he will make President next year. D.A., Doug, and Tommy get all the romantic phrases I learned while studying Shakespeare in hopes it will help them in their conquests. I wish to bequeath to Steven H. all my history worksheets, sonnets, unproven geometry problems, stinky lab work, carroded bread, and the title of "Chief Carpenter."

After much debate, I leave all my amassed eight years of musical knowledge (a C-scale) to Margaret Larsen. Last, but never least, I leave to those who feel slighted, my acting ability (don't push), and 1,000 Brownie points. And although you have heard me enough, this advice: BE GOOD--HAVE FUN

I, Dee Wilson, leave my guitar ability to Wayne and Loma. And my young love to Mary Kyle to remember forever

I, Carolyn Westover, of the school of Joseph City, of the age of fifteen, and being of sound and disposing mind and memory, and not acting under duress, menace, fraud or undue influence of any person whatever, do make publish and declare this my last will and testament, in manner following:

First, to Mr. Hatch and the Annual Staff of 1968, I leave the elegant Annual office (ha ha.) Second, I leave my ability to be a successful fairy to Steves H. and M. Third, I leave my twirling ability to Maylene, in hopes she can be a "good" majorette next year. Fourth, I leave to Neil Kay and Billy D., my revered job as "top bottle washer" at Westover Dairy.

Fifth, I leave my ability to play "Sound of Music (Catastrophe)" on my sax to anyone who cares to drive Mr. Larsen mad. Sixth, I leave Diann P. and Lynette, so that they will not be loaded down with books on the way to Seminary.

And to the rest of you unfortunates, I leave JCS (take good care of her) and as I leave I depart with these words: "Thus saith Mr. Hatch."

I, Gloria Keams, leave my motto of "Silence is Golden," to Greg W. and Wayne M. They sure need it!!!

"WEE" SOPHOMORES

See, I told you Sharon's mouth was always open!!!

So, there really is an Easter Bunny, huh, Dora??

Are those weeds or flower's, Glenn???

Sun in your eyes, Colleen?

It beats crawling, Peggy.

Carolyn or Marilyn Monroe???

Sandi didn't always have the best looking legs(???)

Bashful, Ima???

What bird, Fred?? I don't see a bird!!!

Stephen always did like dolls!!!

You can't escape it, DA.

36-24-36!

Jumping-- or landing?

Mrs. Stickle!!

How cute!!

GO-GO-GO dancers!

Strange things happen in this world!!!!

Young Love!!!!!!

Swallow a fly???

They wouldn't let me be the Statue of Liberty!!!!

Tick-tack-toe

A FORD?????

Camera
Shy??

Mr. Hubbard isn't getting any attention.

Whoops!!!!
Lost something, Doug.

I thought
D.G. was a Monkey?

SOPHOMORES IN 15 YEARS

These are the predictions of Swami the Great, as given to the annual staff.

COLLEEN MILLER: The first woman attorney to never lose a court case.

STEPHEN BICKFORD: The principal of a school for colored children.

DANNY FOREE: The mayor of Holbrook.

PEGGY MILLER: The first lady Jr. Birdman.

FRED MORRIS: A top-less go-go dancer in Los Vegas.

SHARON WIMMER AND IMA JEAN STONEMAN: Replacements for Tommy and Dick Smothers.

GLEN JONES: Pushing Daisies.

DORA EDWARDS: Divorcing her sixth husband.

DEE WILSON: Will be donating his lungs to the Cancer Society.

GLORIA KEAMS: Dictator of South Manilla.

JAYNE RANDALL: Runs a roller-skating rink.

BOB BOYSE: Chief pop-corn popper at the Roxy theatre.

CAROLYN WESTOVER: Authority on what shaving cream gives the closest shave.

SANDI ROGERS: Currently working in Russia on their smog problem.
